

Basketball Australia Role Summary
Role	Australian National Team Manager (Elite Emerging & Junior National Teams - Voluntary)
About Basketball Australia	At Basketball Australia we proudly manage our elite national teams (Boomers & Opals, Rollers & Gliders plus men's and women's 3x3), our Centre of Excellence facility, elite competitions including Australia's longest running women's competition, the Women's National Basketball League (WNBL), major international competitions (FIBA), annual national junior championship events as well as Australian basketball's official junior game development program and other national programs and events.
The Role	We are calling for Expressions of Interest from experienced basketball team managers to support our elite Junior Women's & Men's National Teams (U17-U19) and our Emerging Opals & Boomers teams in 2023 as they compete at national and international events as part of the FIBA schedule of Basketball of which Australia is proudly represented. The Team Manager is the critical organiser, communicator, representative and conduit for the elite teams to Basketball Australia. The position is the 'glue' that brings everything together, will model our values, create a positive and professional culture and will always manage the best interests of the team within the broader parameters of the best interests of Basketball Australia.
Specifications	The Team Manager will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attend all training camps and tours and games with the team (on court) to assist the athletes with equipment they need for games and training. • Liaise with BA to ensure that all operational requirements are planned, implemented for the team's training camps and the organisation of tours. • Ensuring all equipment and uniforms required for the team are distributed. • Communicate all relevant information to all athletes, coaching, support staff and BA High Performance management • Maintain up to date contact lists and regular communication with Basketball Australia High Performance, all athletes and support staff in the program. • Assist the Head Coach whilst on tour with media requirements as directed by Basketball Australia Media contact • Attend occasional meetings organised by BA of all national team managers or coaches as required
What else is important to know	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Travel is required, both domestic and international • MUST be available to travel throughout 2023 and be flexible
Engagement details	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Multiple opportunities • Voluntary appointment • Honorarium applicable • All expenses met by Basketball Australia
Prerequisite requirements	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Must have demonstrated experience as Basketball team manager at state or national level for an elite Junior team • Current Working With Children Check
Must have skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Outstanding communication skills to manage communication at all levels, with Athletes, coaches, parents/guardians and at times international parties • High level problem solving • Proactive – being one step ahead • Highly organised • Calm under pressure
Key Working Relationships:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Head Coach • Head of National Programs – Basketball Australia • Support staff Basketball Australia • Parents/guardians of athletes • Athletes
For more information	For a full role descriptor visit our website https://australia.basketball/vacancies/ or email Michele.Menso@australia.basketball if you have any specific queries.

To express your interest	Send a one-page summary of your motivation and background along with a concise CV to Michele Menso, Head of National Programs michele.menso@australia.basketball EOI closes 30 September 2022.
Our Values	Trust And Transparency, Integrity And Honesty, Professionalism, Accountability And Results